

Estate Planning Goals

It is often helpful for clients to think about some important estate planning issues before meeting with the attorney. Many of the decisions regarding your planning goals and needs are sensitive, and require serious thought and contemplation. Most of the time, clients feel more comfortable talking about these subjects without the attorney present, so we want to give you the opportunity to explore your positions, interests, and values regarding some important estate planning decisions in private with the assistance or help of loved ones.

Completing the below questions helps us gauge your estate planning needs and will help us ascertain what estate planning tools will work best to meet your goals. It also helps us get to know you a little better.

Here are some points that you may wish to consider before meeting with the attorney about your estate plan. 5 is most important, 3 is no opinion, and 1 is least important.
